

Alvaro Brunini has been Uruguay XXI's Investment Manager since December 2014.

Alvaro is a Graduate in Economics of the School of Economic Science and Administration (UDELAR [University of the Republic of Uruguay]), and an advanced student of the Master in International Economics at the School of Social Science (UDELAR).

Prior to his work in Uruguay XXI he held the positions of: Assistant at the Ministry of Labor and Social Security; technician at the Office of Planning and Budget; UNOID consultant at the Ministry of Industry, Energy and Mining; services administrator of the Economic Science Students Center, among others.

He has also acted as a professor of Economics I and Descriptive Economics I, and as a researcher at the School of Economic Science and Administration (UDELAR) in subjects related to the economic scenario and development.