

Alvaro Inchauspe has been General Manager of Instituto Uruguay XXI since August 2011.

Alvaro graduated as Public Accountant from the School of Economics and Administration, UDELAR.

Previously, he held the position of Director of the Private Sector Support Unit, Ministry of Economy and Finances, and incumbent deputy for the Application Commission (COMAP, for its Spanish acronym), as created by Investment Law for the purposes of advising the Executive Branch on the matter. Both authorities are engaged in fostering private investments on a national basis.

He has worked as independent auditor in Central Bank's procedures and management, with vast experience in offshore banking-financial system and as economic and financial advisor for several firms.