Inés Bonicelli took office as Deputy Executive Director of Uruguay XXI in April 2020.

She holds an MBA with a focus on Finance from Michigan Business School, a degree in Business Administration from Universidad Católica del Uruguay and a diploma in Economics from Instituto de Economía de Montevideo.

She is also the founder and director of Atlantika Group, a one-stop-shop service consultancy for foreign real estate investors looking to set up or invest in Uruguay. In this role she developed strategies to present Uruguay as an investor destination and to obtain tax residency, and has been responsible for attracting and serving foreign clients.

She was also a partner of Bado y Asociados Sotheby's International Realty, as well as founder and executive director of ReachingU - a Foundation for Uruguay, the U.S.-based non-profit organization that finances and supports educational projects in Uruguay, which has channeled more than USD 15 million.

Previously she was Operations Manager at Imperio Jp (New York, USA) and Operations Manager at Banco Bozano Simonsen (Rio de Janeiro, Brazil).

She also stands out for his volunteer activities at ReachingU, following the Providencia School project, Liceo Jubilar, Techo, and for organizing volunteer projects for young people and students.
