

SEBASTIÁN RISSO

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

 srisso@uruguayxxi.gub.uy

Sebastian Riso has been the Executive Director of Uruguay XXI since July 2021.

A doctor in Law and Social Sciences from the School of Law of the University of the Republic of Uruguay, Sebastian also holds a Master's degree in International Law, Foreign Trade and International Relations from the Higher Institute of Law and Economics of Madrid, Spain.

He has also specialized in various areas of the law at the Institute of US Law - George Washington University, Washington DC.

For more than 15 years he has been a consultant for companies in the areas of export of services and foreign trade.

Prior to his current position at Uruguay XXI, Sebastian worked as a legal counsel and commercial manager at Jaime & Seré, the leading group of foreign trade and logistics companies in Uruguay, with a strong presence in the region.

From 2013 to 2015, he was the sector coordinator for Uruguay XXI's global export services program financed by the Inter-American Development Bank (IDB), with the objective of promoting investments and exports in service areas.

From 2001 to 2013, Sebastian worked at the law firm Estudio Dr. Mezzera in Montevideo, Uruguay, where he led a team of lawyers, accountants and notaries in the area of advising foreign investors. He also worked in the corporate and labor departments of the firm, advising leading national and international companies.

In addition to his professional activity, he also taught International Private Law at the Law School of the Catholic University of Uruguay.

Uruguay XXI
INVESTMENT, EXPORT AND COUNTRY
BRAND PROMOTION AGENCY