Success Stories

HUMPHREYS & PARTNERS
ARCHITECTS, LLP

"Uruguay's large pool of talented professionals has allowed our company to increase its productivity and profit margin while working in a similar time zone to the US. The quality of the country's human capital combine with training resources and other government support to create a strong value proposition for Uruguay".

Walter Hughes, AIA, VP of Humphreys and Partners Architects.

LAGUARDA.LOW

"LAGUARDA.LOW Architects from New York has been working with Uruguayan studios for more than ten years, obtaining technical architectural services of excellent quality. Exceptional results are built on architects' professionalism, efficiency, and dedication. Their outstanding training allows professionals to become problem-solving, reliable at meeting deadlines, and adaptable to new methodologies and processes."

Pablo Laguarda, FAIA, Partner of LAGUARDA.LOW ARCHITECTS.
