Uruguay offers a predictable environment that supports the stability of a qualified workforce that can deliver on innovation to improve the lives of patients.

"Uruguay, as a logistics hub for the Southern Cone in Latin America offers excellent connection alternatives through air, sea and land, as well as having current legislation that allows us to work quickly and in compliance with international and local standards."

ESTEBAN GARI
BRANCH MANAGER – KUEHNE + NAGEL

"A favorable legal framework, high democracy index and one of the best economic climates in the region provides an ideal business environment needed for a multinational company. The country has stable and long term macroeconomic policies that helps the promotion of foreign capital investment and fosters the free zone regime. Uruguay's high standards of living compared to the rest of the region, the availability of competitive and highly skilled human resources and customer service orientation are also key for the maintenance and growth of our business in the region."

GABRIELA BRANCATO
MANAGING DIRECTOR, MERCK URUGUAY
