 brokerware.com.uy

ABOUT US

Brokerware is an AI-powered front-to-back operating SaaS suite designed for broker-dealers and fund managers.

OUR SERVICES

We integrate client onboarding, order management, middle and back office operations, accounting, compliance, and regulatory reporting into a single cloud-native system. By unifying operational workflows and embedding AI to automate reconciliations, detect anomalies, and optimize processes, Brokerware helps financial institutions reduce operational risk, improve efficiency, and scale their business with modern, institutional-grade infrastructure.

 ombustudio.com

ABOUT US

Ombu Studio is a full-service technology development company specializing in custom digital solutions. With strong expertise in management platforms, data visualization, and decision-support tools, we help organizations transform complex challenges into scalable, user-centric products.

OUR SERVICES

Our key differentiator lies in our multidisciplinary team, combining software engineering, data analytics, user experience design, and a strong client-oriented approach. This enables us to deliver solutions that are not only technically robust, but also intuitive, impactful, and widely adopted by end users.

We integrate technology, design, and strategic thinking to build high-performance platforms aligned with business and institutional goals. Our proven methodology minimizes risk while ensuring efficient execution and measurable outcomes.
