ABM Integra Asesores

We are a consulting firm in corporate services related to accounting, administrative, tax and labour services. Our team has extensive experience, and it is flexible and dynamic.

We are a consulting firm in corporate services related to accounting, administrative, tax and labour services.

Our firm arises starting from the idea that companies require a trusted partner in sensitive areas, rendering high quality services at a reasonable cost for the local market.

Our team is made up of highly experienced professionals, trained under the procedures and methodologies of a Big Four company.

Working under an activity-based business model which allows our clients to optimize costs by focusing on a high value proposal, our services are integrated to your company, forming a great team with vision set on the future and joint growth.

We are committed and dedicated to add value to our clients, giving support on key areas of your business.

Since August 2020, ABM Integra is a member of PCP Global, a global association of accounting and auditing firms.
