Family company founded in 1934 (90 years in the market). Gorlero has a proven track record in both agricultural management and land purchase & sale. We have a wide portofolio of both local and international clients, managing more than 70.000 thousand hectares (Germany, Italy, The Netherlands, Spain, Switzerland, Argentina, Brazil). We have extensive experience in the purchase and sale of agricultural real estate and have participated in transactions of outsanding importance in the area. Through an exhaustive and professional analysis, we offer the most complete advice both in the purchase and sale of rural establishments and in investments related to agribusiness. Our aim is that the client can consider profitability in his decision and that it does not become a mere real estate operation.
