We have been designing campaigns in traditional and digital media for more than 12 years. Radio, television, press, internet, street advertising, stores. Our business is to produce the meeting of a brand with the type of consumers it is looking for.

We have been designing campaigns in traditional and digital media for more than 12 years. Radio, television, press, internet, street advertising, stores. Our business is to produce the meeting of a brand with the type of consumers it is looking for. We have experience with leading brands in the automotive sector, national industries and representatives of massive products. We also provide tourism services, with international hotel chains and travel agencies as clients. Thanks to working with agriculture, our knowledge of the media in the interior of the country sets us apart. Experience. Our portfolio includes works for more than 90 national and foreign companies with representation in Uruguay. Integral service. We have a portfolio of products and services that cover all the requirements of each campaign. Quality. We have a stable team of suppliers that allows us to maintain a quality standard in what we do. Flexibility. We provide monthly services and we also quote specific projects. Renewal. We are constantly searching for new media and technologies that improve the results of our clients.
