Marínés Cardozo has worked as the legal coordinator of the Single Window for Foreign Trade (VUCE) since 2026. She holds a Ph.D. in Law and Social Sciences from the University of the Republic and has extensive experience in foreign trade facilitation, inter-institutional relations, and regulatory modernization and transformation. Her career has focused on coordinating between public and private organizations to promote initiatives aimed at streamlining processes, regulatory transformation, and the incorporation of technologies to improve public administration.

She has been part of the VUCE since its creation and participated in the regulatory review for the platform's comprehensive design, leading to the analysis of the regulations of the agencies incorporated into the system. She also advised on the definition of the VUCE's institutional framework, actively participating in the drafting of the provisions for its creation (Law 19.149).

It represents the VUCE in national and international forums related to trade facilitation.
